Produced by

An initiative of

Editor's Note

Since our inception in 2019, the Youth Mentoring Office (YMO) has spearheaded efforts to build the competencies of mentors through training and sharing of relevant resources. YMO adopts the Gift Centred Mentoring (GCM) philosophy that aims to uncover the gifts of mentees and nurture their potential. In October 2021, YMO produced a comprehensive Mentor Manual to guide mentors to engage their mentees, build rapport and facilitate a better understanding of the GCM philosophy.

To complement the Mentoring Manual, YMO put together this #amPowered@M³ Towns to support programme managers to design and maintain a mentoring programme and ensure programme's alignment and fidelity to the GCM philosophy. The content of this playbook is chronologically organized to provide a step-by-step guide from conceptualising stage up to the evaluation of a mentoring programme to measure impact and efficacy.

This playbook also aims to aid programme managers to align the objectives and key performance indicators of mentoring programmes to Focus Area 3's (FA3) overarching vision of achieving a Community of Success.

We hope that programme managers will find this playbook useful and relevant. We welcome you to share your thoughts and best practices with YMO so that we can also compile these valuable insights and share it across our mentoring eco-system.

We look forward to connecting deeper with you!

Warm Regards,
Youth Mentoring Office

Problem Statement and Objectives

At the national level, a survey conducted by the National Youth Council (NYC) found that many Malay/Muslim youths were concerned about their employment prospects. Many lacked confidence in their qualifications and skills and eventually took on jobs in areas that were unrelated to their certifications.

Many also said that they lack awareness of the channels to find employment or internships. As a result, they would end up in blue collared employment such as sales, food and beverage industry or employment in the gig economy. Our mentoring programme therefore need to address the above challenges faced by the youths in our community and help them to achieve greater aspirations and enter the emerging sectors.

The efforts under Focus Area 3 (FA3) Taskforce on youth empowerment and mentoring aims to build a strong and an active mentoring culture in the Malay/Muslim community. Through mentoring, we aim to achieve the following outcomes:

- Youth remain in school, progress to the next level and graduate
- Youth are aware of career pathways, and have aspirations and goals
- Youth have strong networks and are well-connected

Youth Mentoring Office (YMO)

YMO is a product of the M³ collaborative efforts in building a successful community through empowering and mentoring youth. Established in 2019 within MENDAKI, YMO spearheads and drives mentoring efforts to develop and establish a strong and active mentoring culture within the Malay/Muslim community.

Since the launch of M³FA3, several mentoring programmes have been rolled out to widen outreach to more youths in secondary schools and the Institute of Technical Education (ITE) and Institutes of Higher Learning (IHL), such as:

- #amPowered@M3 Towns
- #amPowered@MTS
- #amPowered@ITE
- PEER by MENDAKI Club
- MARA by MENDAKI Club
- Project Pathfinder

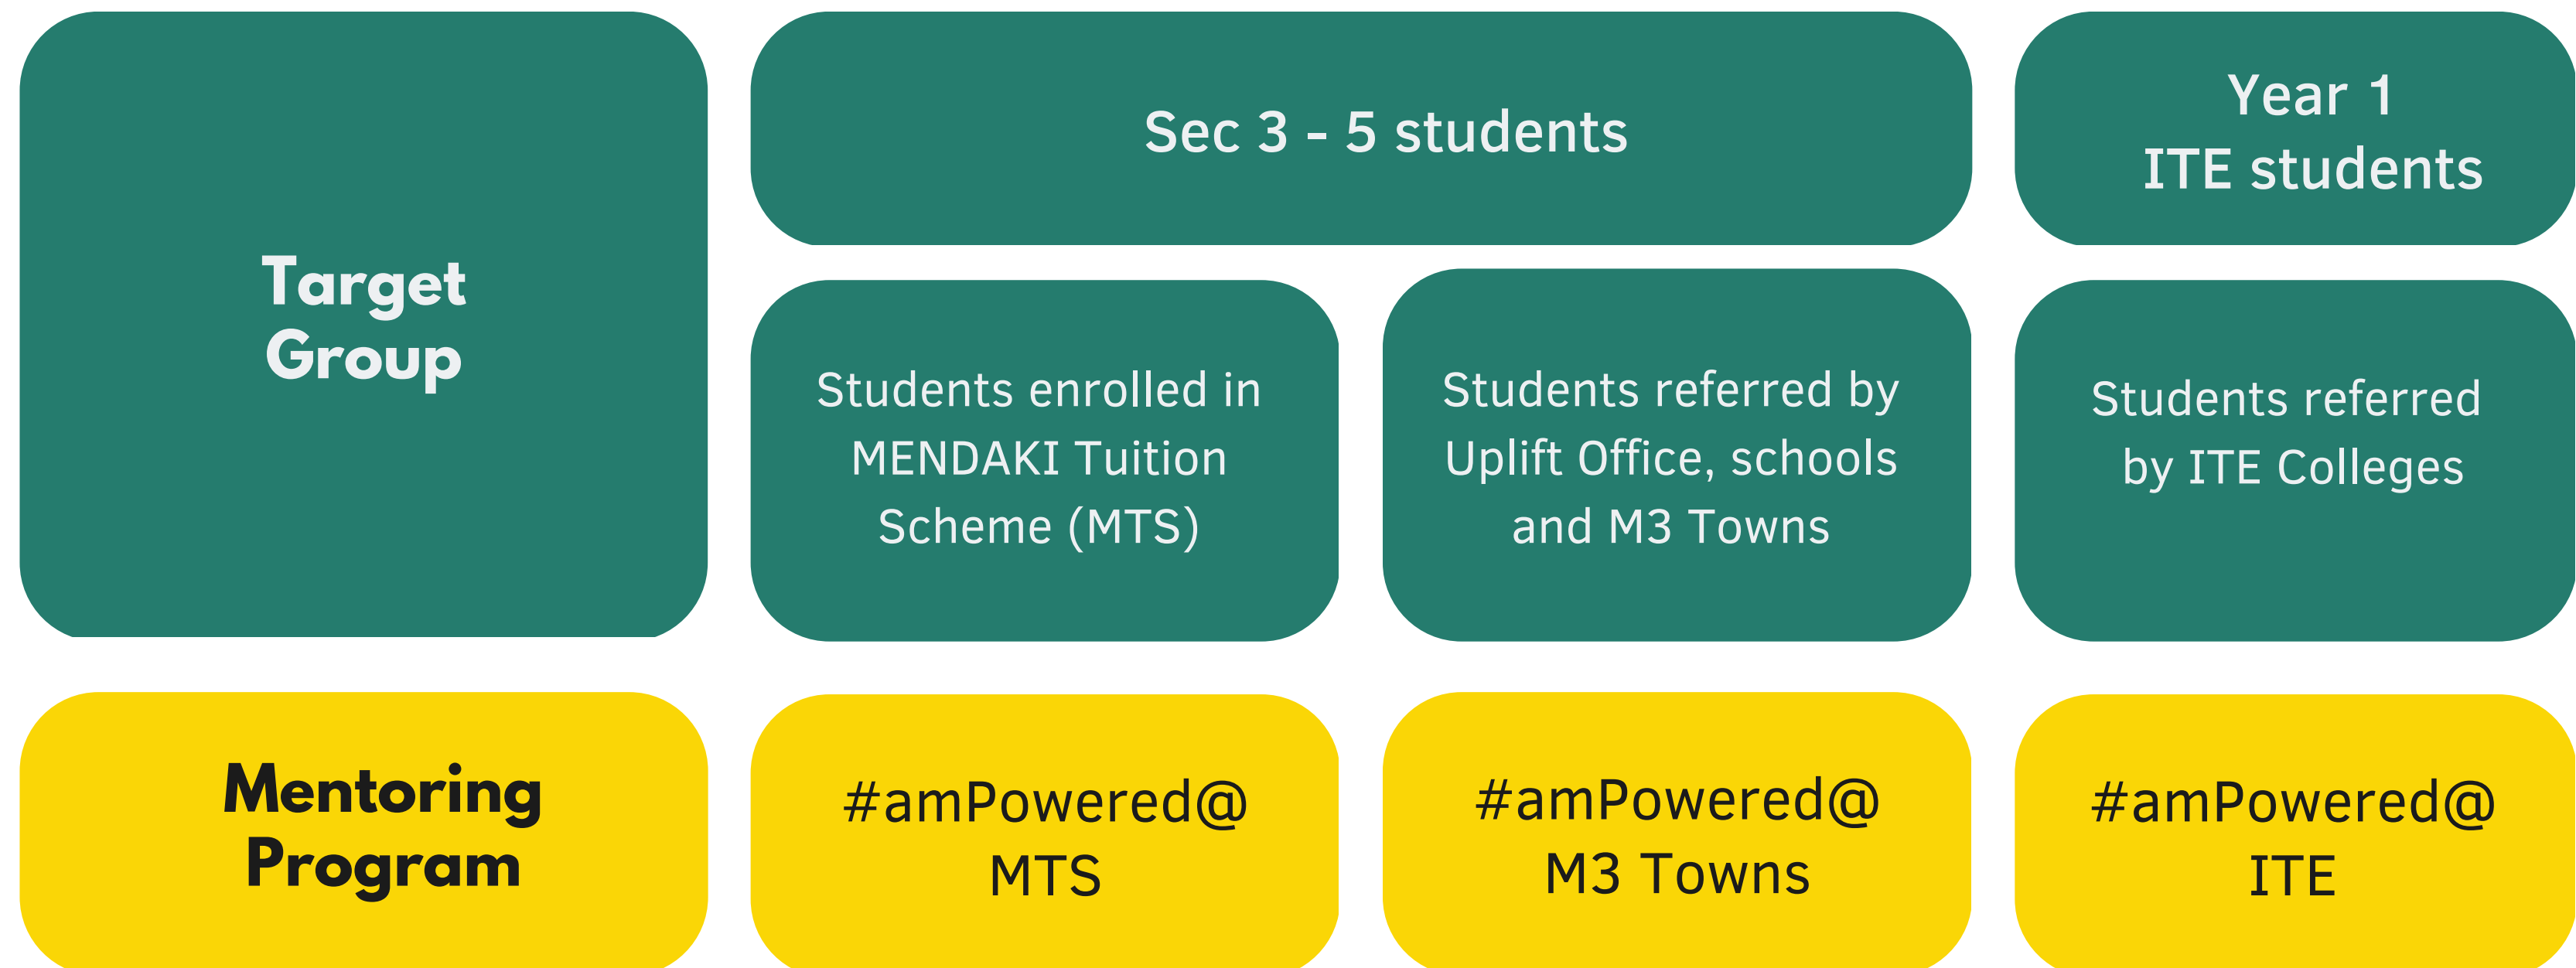

These programmes adopted the Gift-Centred Mentoring (GCM) philosophy, a trademarked and evidence-based mentoring model from the Youth Mentoring Connection (YMC) based in Los Angeles, USA, to enhance and build the competency of the community through mentoring.

Visit M³'s official website at www.m3.gov.sg for more information of our programmes.

#amPowered Mentoring Programme

A structured mentoring programme for Malay/Muslim youths aged between 15 and 18 years old to help them discover their strengths and maximize their potential.

In 2019, Minister Masagos, together with key members of M³FA3, visited Youth Mentoring Connection, a Los Angeles-based youth mentoring agency, to observe the best practices in their GCM philosophy.

Gift-Centred Mentoring (GCM)

GCM focuses on the unique individual gifts of mentees that are waiting to be discovered and nurtured.

Apart from developing their gifts, particular attention is placed on identifying and caring for the wounds of mentees. By celebrating the strengths of their gifts and acknowledging their wounds, mentees will be able to achieve their full potential.

Mentors will be required to attend the GCM Training conducted by YMO to build their capabilities and equip them with skills on building a successful relationship with their mentees. The training is divided into 2 modules.

Upon completion of both modules, mentors will receive the YMO certification and can be matched and deployed to the registered mentoring programme.

The Impact of #amPowered and GCM

4,250

mentees have benefited from #amPowered mentoring since 2019

80%

were aware of the importance of doing well in school and wanted to further their studies.

Interaction with mentors helped in decision-making regarding the different pathways to pursue further education.

Those who have benefited from mentoring reported having strong personal relationships and feel supported by other adults in their life.

#amPowered Mentoring Timeline

The Mentoring Roadmap

Developing the Core Organising Team

Towns are recommended to develop a Core Organising Team which will help to determine the timeline and content of the programme, and put together the projected programme budget.

The programme budget will depend on whether the Towns are delivering the programme independently or require certain portions to be outsourced to vendors.

A list of training vendors previously engaged by the Youth Mentoring Office (YMO) can be found in Annex A for reference.

Consult YMO

The Core Organising Team is required to consult YMO for programme guidance and clarification. This includes seeking advice and guidance for programme content, projected budget and recruitment of mentors and mentees.

While the Core Organizing Team is tasked to recruit mentors, YMO partners with the Ministry of Education (MOE) Uplift Office (UPO) to assist programme managers with the mentee recruitment.

UPO Town Coordinators will work closely with the Towns to identify schools to reach out to. And schools will decide if they wish to refer the students to the mentoring programme.

The profile of mentees identified by YMO will secondary 3 to 5 L1 students; students who are categorized as having good school attendance, but poor academic results.

The roles of YMO and programme managers are further defined in the next page.

Roles of YMO & Programme Managers

Youth Mentoring Office (YMO)	Programme Managers
Linking Uplift Office to M3 Town liaison for referral of mentees	Recruiting mentors and sending them to YMO for mentor training
Training of mentors (Gift-Centred Mentoring)	Recruiting mentees by working with the MOE Uplift Office
Building mentors' competency through Community of Practice	Sharing confirmed number of mentors and mentees with YMO
Programme Guidance	Administering the mentoring programme
Funding support	Mentor-Mentee matching
Evaluation support	Submitting proposed budget and expenditure to YMO & ECO at the start and end of the programme cycle
Marketing of FA3 mentoring programmes	Submitting mentor-mentee stories to YMO for marketing Identifying mentor speakers for YOUth@M ³ engagements

Funding by the National Youth Fund (NYF)

Another potential source of funding is the National Youth Fund by the National Youth Council (NYC). The grant is applicable to projects that benefit and create impact for youths.

Towns are required to submit your planned budget to YMO before rolling out the mentoring programme so that YMO can advice on the claimable expenses based on NYC's criteria.

Towns can also seek other source of funding through CDC grant, Temasek Foundation and/ or President's Challenge.

Mentee Recruitment

YMO partners with the Ministry of Education (MOE) Uplift Office (UPO) to assist programme managers with the following:

- Recruiting of mentees
- Further support in publicizing the programme by asking UPO's Town Level Coordinators (TLCs) to recommend appropriate mentees for the programme

Towns are to identify schools in the vicinity based on the M3 boundaries and connect with them through the MOE Uplift Office.

YMO will provide Towns with #amPowered infokit to share with the schools. Towns may refer to Annex B for the consent form to be shared with the school.

Mentor Recruitment

The main platform to recruit mentors is through the YOUTH@M³ engagement sessions.

Core Organising Team may recruit mentors from institutes of higher learnings (IHLs), youth networks, mosque youth groups and professional career networks.

Those who are interested to be mentors will need to fill out the Mentor Application Form prepared by Towns/YMO and undergo mentor training by YMO.

The format of the Mentor Application Form and Code of Conduct can be seen in Annex C and D respectively.

Marketing Collaterals for Mentor Recruitment

YMO have prepared collaterals to help Towns in recruiting mentors via marketing channels such as:

- Social Media (Instagram/Facebook)
- Email EDM
- Digital Display Panels (DDP) at HDB Lift Lobbies

A working file will be shared with Towns to amend the collaterals provided to suit the needs for recruitment. Refer to Annex E.

Towns are to reach out to the Town Council or Target Media regarding marketing via DDP at respective towns. Towns may check in with YMO for Target Media's contact, if required.

Towns are encouraged to create their own registration form and QR code to be included in the collaterals. Otherwise, YMO will provide MENDAKI's Volunteer Recruitment Form which includes all volunteer opportunities.

Sample collaterals

Screening of Mentors

Once the mentors have applied through the form and Towns have collated all applicants, a screening process will commence.

The mentor screening process plays a crucial role in identifying suitable mentor candidates. While it is convenient to accept every mentor applicant into the mentoring programme, it is vital to follow through with a screening process to ensure suitability and quality of mentors coming into the programme. Mentors play a crucial role to the success of the programme.

Screening will be conducted by MENDAKI's Partnership Team, who will arrange for in-person interviews to be conducted with the applicant. They will then carry out interviews with the provided personal references, if required. This is followed by conducting background checks on the applicant in areas such as the person's medical history, criminal records etc.

Applicants who are successfully screened will then be allowed to continue to the following step: mentor training.

Mentor and Mentee Criteria

Mentors Criteria

- Any one regardless of race, religion, and profession
- Aged 21 and above
- No experience required! Training will be provided

Mentees Criteria

- Malay/Muslim
- Secondary 3-5 NA/NT students

Training of Mentors

Towns will submit the names of the recruited mentors to the Youth Mentoring Office (YMO) for the mandatory GCM Training.

Recruited mentors will undergo Module 1 (e-learning) and Module 2 (in-person training) by YMO. The training calendar by YMO will be shared with Towns for easier reference.

By the end of the training, mentors would be able to:

- Identify youth who may require additional support
- Apply mentoring techniques to build trust and rapport with youths
- Apply probing techniques to analyze needs of youth and determine underlying issues faced by youths
- Determine the interest of youths and assist youths to set personal goals
- Able to conduct mentoring sessions using the GCM approach

Roles of a mentor, extracted from The Gift of Mentoring, A Guide for Mentors which was produced by YMO in 2021. Refer to Annex F to download the mentor manual.

Training Modules

Module 1: E-learning

This module is conducted online via the Learning Management System. It aims to equip mentors with the foundations of mentoring and mentoring in the local (Singapore) context. The module also introduces mentors to M3 and Focus Area 3 on 'Empowering Youths through Mentoring'. This includes a video followed by an online assessment with multiple-choice questions.

Mentors are encouraged to complete module 1 before attending module 2 training to ensure that they will fully benefit from the training.

Module 2: In-person Training

Module 2 is an interactive training that aims to equip mentors with tools and techniques to engage mentees and deepen mentors' understanding of Gift Centered Mentoring.

Mentor-Mentee Matching

Matching is often one of the most challenging aspects of a mentoring programme. Participants have various competencies, backgrounds, learning styles and needs. Where possible, consider giving mentees a say in the matching process by allowing them to select a particular mentor or submit their top three choices of mentors.

Evaluate various match combinations before finalising as ensuring quality mentors for hard-to-match mentees can be challenging. Matching best practices start with a solid profile for all participants, mentors and mentees.

Critical profile elements include development goals, specific topical interests, location, experiences, and matching preferences.

Considerations for Matching

Both mentors and mentees may indicate their personal needs and preferences for matching. This helps bring about successful and effective long-term mentoring relationships.

Listed below are some of the areas that could be taken into consideration when attempting to make a positive match.

- Gender
- Interests
- Proximity of mentor and mentee
- Career background
- Educational background

While there are no strict rules or formula to follow when matching, the above criteria is very useful when it comes to creating positive and effective matches. It also helps if both the mentee and mentor are open with their preferences for the matching process.

The recommended mentor to mentee ratio is 1:5, however it is up to programme managers to allocate the numbers accordingly depending on the programme structure. It is also recommended to group mentors together (ie 2 mentors to 4 mentees) so they can support each other in terms of resources and adding value to the mentorship.

Deployment: Conducting the Mentoring Sessions

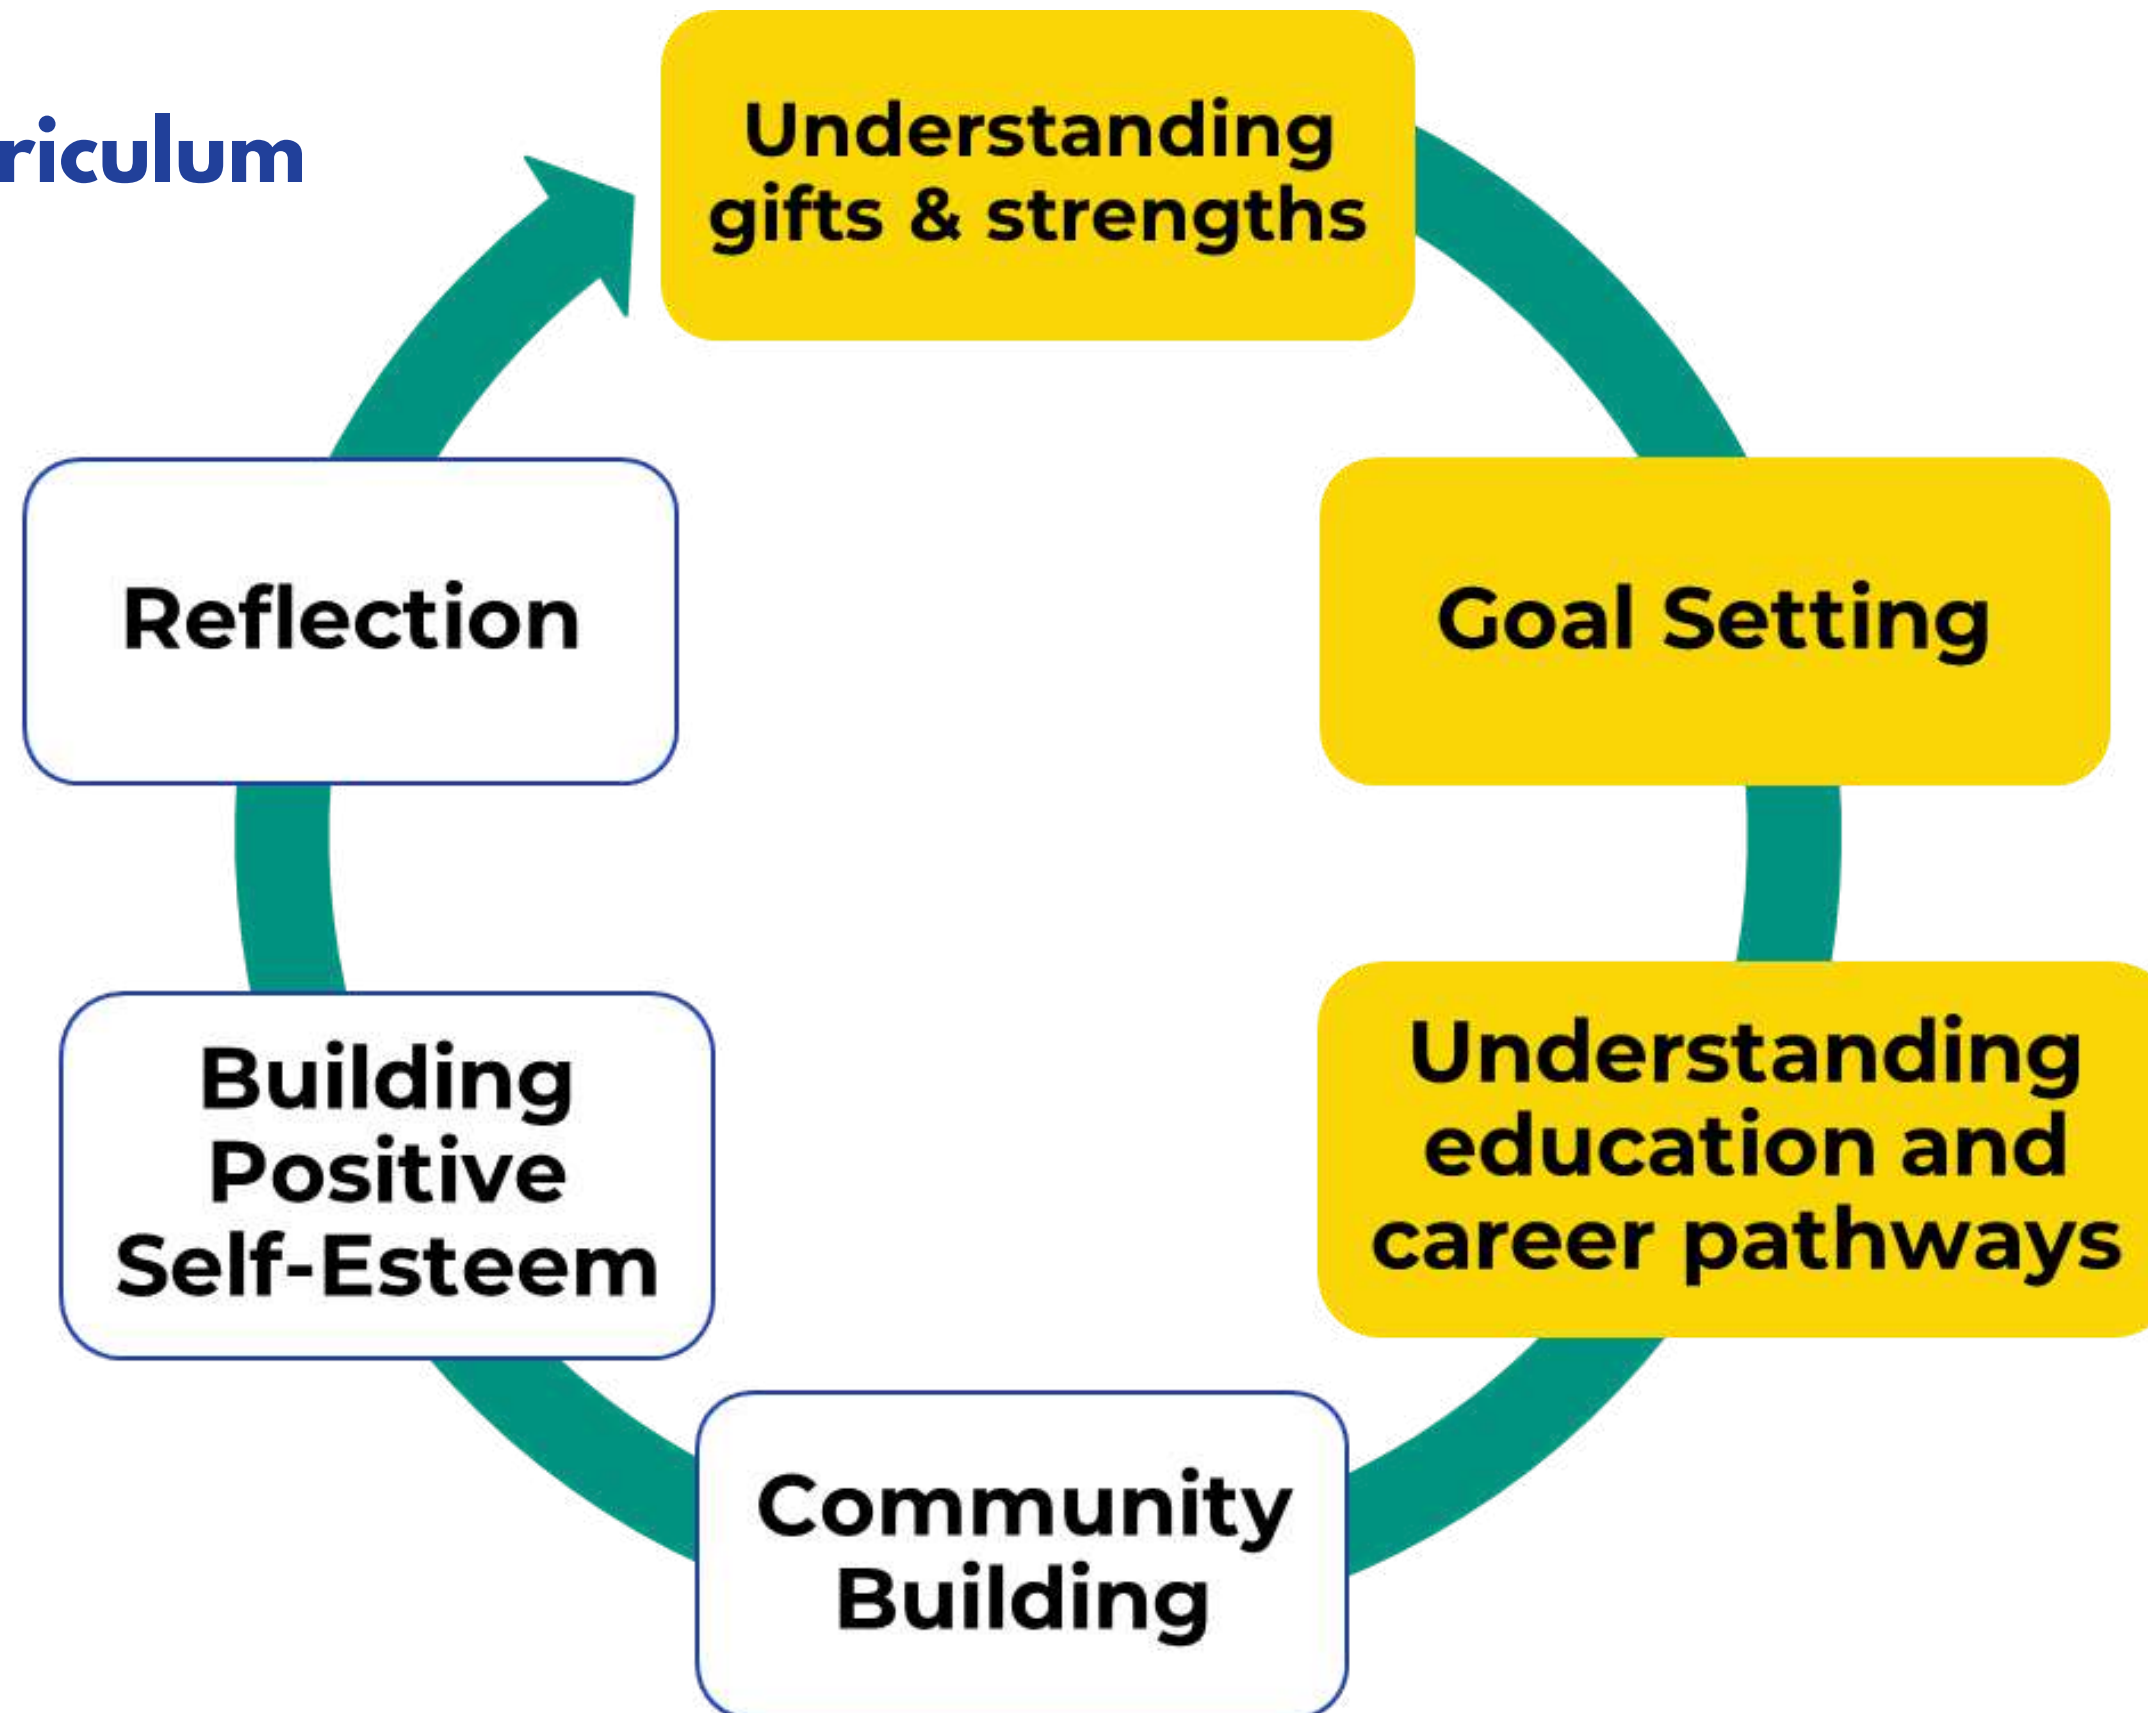

In the Gift-Centered Mentoring (GCM) philosophy, the recommended duration for a cycle of mentoring programme is 6 sessions across 6 months (1 session per month). Duration of each session is between 2 and 3 hours long.

This has been assessed to be the ideal amount of time needed to create a meaningful programme with the most impact.

This will allow mentors and mentees time to get to know each other, build rapport, establish trust and work on discovering their gifts and caring for their wounds.

Review and Evaluation

Upon the completion of the mentoring programme, programme managers are to review and conduct an evaluation using ACT! Sg tool which will allow us to identify the strengths and weaknesses of the programme and areas of improvement.

With evaluation, programme managers will also be able to validate the effectiveness of the programme and show how mentoring impact the beneficiaries positively. YMO works closely with the M Programme Evaluation Office (PEO) and the programme managers to collect quantitative, qualitative data and conduct analysis for all the #amPowered programme.

Empowerment Programmes @ ITE, 2019

ACT! Sg Framework

The ACT! Sg Framework will be adopted to evaluate all #amPowered mentoring programmes. The tool is endorsed by the Ministry of Social and Family Development (MSF) and the National Committee on Prevention, Rehabilitation and Recidivism (NCPR) as well as the Central Youth Guidance Office (CYGO).

YMO required the ACT! sg survey to be disseminated to mentees at the start and end of the mentoring programme. This will enable us to analyze the impact of mentoring from the 15 domains listed in ACT! sg. YMO would focus on 3 domains (refer to next page) in our analysis of impact.

Click here for more information on the ACT! SG framework and click here for a sample of the ACT! SG survey questions.

Read each statement carefully and select the number that best describes you.

There are no right or wrong answers and please answer all questions.

8. Question 1

I have achieved better grades than I expected in school.

- 1 (Strongly Disagree)
- 2 (Disagree)
- 3 (Neither Agree nor Disagree)
- 4 (Agree)
- 5 (Strongly Agree)

9. Question 2

My overall grades are good.

- 1 (Strongly Disagree)
- 2 (Disagree)
- 3 (Neither Agree nor Disagree)
- 4 (Agree)
- 5 (Strongly Agree)

10. Question 3

My school attendance is good.

YMO adopts 3 out of the 15 domains of the ACT! Sg Framework; Positive Relationship, Goal Setting and Life Goals

Positive Relationships

- Youth develops positive and sustained relationships with peers
- Youth has positive role models
- Youth can seek appropriate assistance and support from peers/adults in resolving problems

Goal Setting

- Youth plans to attend post-secondary (or post IHL) education
- Youth can identify potential goals (both short and long-term)
- Youth can identify barriers to his/her goal attainment with a focus on solution to the barriers

Lifegoals

- Youth sets goals and believes he/she can achieve them
- Youth perceives he/she can thrive in future
- Youth has clear ambition

At the end of the programme, YMO will work with the Programme Evaluation Office (PEO) closely to analyse the data. This allows us to pick up best practices and learn from each other. Data produced will also help in our programme marketing efforts and to get buy-ins from stakeholders by highlighting the impact of mentoring on our youths.

RE-AIM Framework

In FA3, we use a tool known as RE-AIM for evaluation purposes. RE-AIM is an evidence-based approach that allows us to create or modify the interventions based on the information available.

The RE-AIM framework consists of five components that address the different aspects that one should look out for to assess the effectiveness of the programme.

The RE-AIM dimensions focus on individual as well as staff and setting levels. Settings include schools and neighbourhoods, and staff responsible for implementation that are embedded within these settings (Glasgow, et al., 2019).

The five components of RE-AIM can be seen in the next page.

Reach

The absolute number, proportion, and representativeness of individuals who are willing to participate in an initiative and the reasons why or why not.

Related questions:

- How do I reach the targeted population within the intervention?
- At the end of the programme, was the targeted population reached?

Effectiveness

The impact of an intervention on important outcomes, including both positive and negative effects, quality of life, and economic outcomes. Effectiveness also considers the heterogeneity of effects and reasons for successes or lack thereof.

Related questions:

- How do I know my intervention is effective?
- What kind of indicators are used to measure effectiveness?

Adoption

The absolute number, proportion and representativeness of settings and intervention agents (i.e., people who deliver the programme) who are willing to initiate the programme. This include the reasons for adoption or non-adoption of the programme.

Related questions:

- How do I develop organizational support to deliver my intervention?
- What are some of the pain points when adopting the intervention?

Implementation

At the setting level, implementation refers to the intervention agents' fidelity to the various elements of an intervention's key functions or components, including consistency of delivery as intended and the time and cost of the intervention. Importantly, it also includes adaptations made to interventions and implementation strategies.

Related questions:

- How do I ensure the intervention is delivered properly?
- Was there fidelity in the intervention (i.e. was it implemented as planned)?
- What were the adaptations (if any) made to the implementation?

Maintenance

Maintenance is the extent to which a program or policy becomes part of the routine organizational practices and policies. At the individual level, maintenance is defined as the long-term effects of a programme on outcomes after 6 or more months after the most recent intervention contact.

Related questions:

- How do I incorporate the intervention so that it is delivered over the long term?
- What types of behaviours can we measure overtime?

Using these five dimensions, the programme manager can come up with questions specific to the programme and derive the appropriate evaluation methods and data sources to answer the questions.

We cannot force the character of confidence in them (mentees). It is something that we must bring it out from them. That is a gift of mentoring.
